

LIST OF SOCIAL AND GAME SKILLS

Instructions: Answer the questions, according to the age of your child, with yes or no.

Results: If you answer positively more than twice, it is recommended to visit someone expert.

Your child has difficulty in:

Age	Skill	YES	NO
0-6 months	Maintains eye contact for a few seconds
	Smiling when someone approaches
	Smiles during the play
	Copes with his/her emotions
	Handling and using items
6-12 months	Playing peek aboo
	Keeping eye contact
	Clapping his hands after prompt
	Putting his hands up when he sees his parents
	Imitating facial expressions
	Imitating adults movements
	Placing with the right way one doll
1 – 2 years	Giving toys to other children
	Recognizing himself/herself in the mirror
	Looking for hidden objects
	Playing roles
	Playing games using his imagination
	Saying "Hello"
2 – 3 years	Expressing his desire (ex. I want to drink)
	Playing like the dolls and Teddy bears are alive
	Playing next to other children
	Playing using symbols
	Playing roles( acting roles that are not often seen in daily life)

Age	Skill	YES	NO
3 – 4 years	Playing with electrical toys
	Playing in turns
	Playing in a team with 2-3 members
	Playing roles (fireman who puts out fires)
	Talking about his emotions
	Feeling embarrassment when his parents are watching him doing something wrong
4 – 5 years	Playing with other children with common goal
	Playing roles for an extended time
	Playing games with simple rules

5 – 6 years	Playing roles( acting more complicated roles)
	Negotiating during play
	Playing well in team games
6 – 7 years	Playing in small teams with their own rules
	Playing co-operating games without accepting loss
	Enjoying playing with other children of same gender		